N our Paper of the 15th Inft. fome Account was given of the Means by which the Treaty of Franckfort was brought a-bout, and a Promise made to open the Views of the French in concluding that Treaty, which seemed to have so little Tendency to the Execution of those Defigns on which the

This, I fay, we mily suppose; and whoever pursues the Treaty for, will, at first Sight discern, that, to all Interpose, such a Treaty it is. Right, or only in Trust for her potent Ally, eror; is a Question I shall not decide. As the inter frems most fikely; but if we consult by concluded at Nymphenburgh, the former form most likely to take Place. It is howpossible, that on a Peace, the Moderation and dack of the most Christian King, might into give it up to the Emperor, in its present ad dismanted Condition, so that it will be of to him; and the Paff. may left open for the French to enter at, as they think proper; and, no doubt, all the Forcome into their Hands, under Colour of offession of them for his Imperial Majesty, will td in the same mander.

as the important Siege of Fribourg was over, te Ecclesialical Electors were threaten's; and the Elector of Mentz particularly was given to under-fland, that what M. de Coigny had thrown out by way of Menace on Prince Charles's passing the Rhine, was now to come to pass. The Elector of Triers was to have his Share, upon bare Suspicion; but as for the Elector of Cologne, he indeed had deserved to have his Dominions eaten up, for declaring publickly. That the Gurranty of the Pragmatick Sanction, in favour of the Queen of Hungary, ought not to be violated; and that the faith or Princes was not to be jelled with. A flagrant Crime indeed in the Judgment of the Court of France. The Electorate of Hanover was also to be chadie'd by the Hand of M. Maillebons; and all this under Colour of the Treaty of Franckfort, which, however, expresses nothing of this Nature; and it before the March of the French Forces, such Operations had been furmised, they would, doubtless, have been treated as grofs and groundless Calumnies, invented by the Enemies of their Imperial and most Christian Majesties, purely to blacken and abuse them.

Thus it manifestly appears, that the Ends of France, in concluding this Treaty, have been in a great Measure answer'd, and must have been answer'd in their full extent, if her Arms had spread that Terror in Germany, which it was supposed they would have done. But the Firmnels of the German Princes, the vigorous Motions of the Allies, and the Success of the Queen of Hungary's Arms, afford us Reason to hope, that the Michiefs induced by that fatal Treaty, are not irremediable; but that it is still possible to counterwork the Policy of that ambitious Power, and to put a Stop to the Progress of her Defigns; whether she profecutes them for the future, by Arms or by Art.
